SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 14.—With two wings of the party fighting hard for control, the Republican State convention will convene in convention hall in the Agricultural Pavilion at 2 o'clock this afternoon. George A. Knight, national committeeman, and who will be one of the delegates-at-large to the National convention, is practically certain to be chairman.

Early at Work

Both camps, the "Regulars" and the Lincoln-Roosevelt delegates, were astir early this morning. The headquarters of the latter in the Capitol Hotel was crowded until after 2 o'clock this morning. Across the street at the Golden Eagle Hotel, where the regular organization has its headquarters, there was no excitement. The quiet of absolute confidence seemed to prevail among the regulars.

No claims are being made by the Lincoln-Roosevelt leaders.

EXPECT TO FIND MORE DEAD ON GUNNESS FARM

Evidence of Further Victims Discovered

LA PORTE, Ind., May 14.—The Guinness death farm today gave up more corroborative evidence. Two more bodies were found in the debris of the ruined house. The bodies of nine male victims have been unearthed, yet the record of watches belonging to men is now ten.

Sheriff Smulzer announced that he will resume digging operations with the hope of uncovering additional skeletons. After the watches were found today Prosecutor Smith and the sheriff held a hurried consultation, but neither would reveal the details of their talk.

Seek Missing Man.

The attorneys for the defense are said to be looking for David Havens, who it is reported aided in uncovering the bodies of the persons whom Ray Lamp here is accused of murdering. According to the information current, they claim that Havens was declared an undesirable citizen by Sheriff Smulzer and ordered away from La Porte shortly after the fire. The attorneys also claim that Havens has declared that when the bodies were found in the cellar of the Guinness home on April 2 that they were lying on the floor and that there was no debris under them.

They assert that testimony to this effect at the trial will do much to clear their client of the charges against him, arguing that the circumstances show that the bodies had been placed in the cellar previous to the beginning of the fire which destroyed the farmhouse.

The testimony of other men who helped Sheriff Smulzer uncover the corpses and of the sheriff himself is against this supposition. In addition the findings of the physicians who examined the corpses established the fact that the persons buried were clothed in night robes and that remains of bedding and mattresses were also present.

The possible determination that the globules of metal found by the mining operations on the Guinness farm yesterday were bits of gold used by a dentist for filling in crowns on the woman's teeth is likely to be a development of importance in the case today. The specimens were turned over to a local jeweler last night and it is expected that he will report on them soon.

GRAND JURY MAKES A PARTIAL REPORT TODAY

Everything Is in Good Condition So Far as Grand Jury's Expert Has Gone

The Grand Jury filed a partial report in Department 5 of the Superior Court this morning, Judge T. W. Harris presiding. The report embraces the statement and report of County Expert Norman McLaren.

McLaren reports that he has gone over the records of the county clerk's office, and the Tax Collector as far as the licenses are concerned. He will complete the examination of the Tax Collector's books up to and including June, after that he will examine the accounts in the Assessor's office. He asks in his report to be allowed to suspend his investigation till July 1, at which time the assessment roll will be completed and ready for investigation.

McLaren, according to his report, finds that all the books in the county offices he has investigated are in excellent condition.

Submit Partial Report.

In submitting its report, the grand jury, of which Herman Bendel is foreman, says:

"The grand jury of the county of Alameda herewith respectfully submits a partial report of the facts that we have found, up to the present time, pertaining to the books, records, and accounts of the officers of the county of Alameda and especially those pertaining to the revenue; said report being herewith presented and filed in performance of our duty, as provided for in section 928 of the penal code of the State of California."

Supplemental Report.

McLaren says in a supplemental report, made on April 28:

"I beg to offer the following brief report as supplementary to the one which was addressed to you on the 22d instant and which dealt partly with the balances in cash and in bank, which were examined by the county officials on April 16. The total amount on hand, as already reported to you, was $778,286.30, which was the amount called for by the books. Of this $752,600 was represented by special deposits with various banks and I annex a list of the amounts so on hand, together with the securities deposited to secure the same.

"At the suggestion of Mr. Kelly I have attended with him at the vaults of the Oakland Bank of Savings and have counted (on 27th inst) the bonds extant herein. You will notice that at the par value the securities on hand exceed the amount of the deposit in every case but one. This was in the instance of the First National Bank in which within the last few days there has been an additional deposit of $30,000 and at the same time a change in the securities deposited. As the result of this it was found that as against a total deposit of $100,000 there were on hand bonds to the value of $96,000, but I understand that further securities have now been deposited, viz: eleven City of Oakland bonds, $100 each."

Then follows a table of the county monies that were on deposit in the banks of this county on April 16.

Auditor's Statement.

The expert encloses in his report a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the county auditor and treasurer from January 1 to December 31st, 1907, which is as follows:

Balance on hand January 1, 1907, $1,378,853.86; receipts as per analysts sheets annexed, January 1 to December 31, 1907, $2,621,306.46; disbursements as per analysts sheet annexed January 1 to December 31, 1907, $3,102,451.52; balance on hand December 31, 1907, $897,710.80.

McLaren's Report.

In his partial report of his investigations, McLaren says in a letter:

To the Honorable Grand Jury of

TWO WOMEN CATCH BURGLAR

Old Offender Found Wandering
About the Central Hotel When Women Grappled With Him

It was due to the bravery and pluck of Miss Sadie Garton, housekeeper of the Central Hotel, 616 Twelfth street, and Mrs. G. Meyer, wife of the proprietor of the place, that Henry Sinclair, alias Warren, an old offender, is in the city jail on a charge of burglary. The man was discovered in the place by Miss Garton, who followed him to the lower floor of the hotel, and after calling Mrs. Meyer to her assistance, the two women grappled with the intruder and held him pending the arrival of Policemen Keefe and Smith, who responded to a telephone call and took him to the city prison.

PROSECUTION IN RUEF CASE WILL PROBABLY CLOSE TODAY

Francis Heney Puts Andy Wilson on the Witness Stand

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—Hesitating, stammering, stuttering, making every effort not to appear confused by the hammering questions of Henry Ach, but failing utterly, ex-Supervisor Andrew M. Wilson presented a pitiable spectacle as he sat upon the stand in the Ruef case in Judge Dowling's court this morning. As a witness, he proved to be the worst of the proteges of the prosecution who have thus far appeared.

He fell easily in the web spread for him by Ach and was forced to admit that he had not told the whole truth in the Ford case, and that, indeed, although he had intended to testify correctly before the grand jury, right after the issuance of the immunity, but that since he had recollections things in a somewhat different light.

His testimony was looked upon as exceedingly favorable to the defense, and Heney will endeavor to counteract it on the re-direct examination this afternoon.

Opening of Session.

THAW OPENS FIGHT FOR HIS LIBERTY

Contents Justice Dowling Was Legally Wrong When He Sent Prisoner to Matteawan Asylum.

POUGHKEESIE, N. Y., May 14.—The opening of the Thaw habeas corpus hearing today, after many delays, found Thaw and his representatives and Attorney Jerome's forces equally ready to hasten the issue to a conclusion. As outlined in the Associated Press dispatches last week, Thaw's counsel contended that Justice Dowling did not conform to the legal requirements when he committed Thaw to Matteawan. They claim therefore that he is being deprived of his liberty without due process of law. They ask Justice Morschauser to first pass upon this question before examining witnesses to determine Thaw's present mental condition.

TRIBUNE Day Tomorrow. Idora Park; Prizes Dropped From Balloon

GRAND JURY MAKES A PARTIAL REPORT

Alameda county, California. Gentleman: On the 24th ult. a preliminary report was submitted to you signed by my firm and myself, on my examination of the county's accounts, and oral reports having since been made to you on March 31st and on the 15th inst. Up to the present date I have completed investigation of the county clerk's, recorder's and sheriff's accounts, and of the tax collector's accounts so far as his transactions as licensee collector are concerned.

Tax Collector's Books.

The greater part of our work relating to this officer's collection of property taxes has also been finished and we shall have proceeded as far as it is practicable at present to do, within three or four days, but as we are dealing with the current year, this part of the investigation cannot be completed until after the tax collector's final settlement with the auditor, which takes place at the end of June. At about that time, or very shortly afterwards, I shall be in a position to investigate and report on the transactions of the assessor's office, as the assessment rolls must be completed by July 1st.

Asks More Time.

I therefore respectfully suggest that you allow us to suspend our work until the month of July, except as regards any special matters which you may see fit to take up.

The chief purpose of this communication is to present to you the annexed statements of receipts and disbursements, which have been prepared in accordance with your instructions. Reference has already been made to the fact that Section 117 of the County Government Act provides for the preparation of an annual statistical report of county transactions. It has not been customary, however, in compiling this report to give any classification of the statutory salaries paid or of the charges to the county general fund, and the Supervisors' report just referred to deals with the fiscal year ending June 30th.

Analysis of Expenditures.

The figures here presented relate to the period from January 1st to December 31st, 1907, and following the statements of disbursements you will find analysis of the expenditures on account of the county general fund and of the salary fund amounting to $512,517.74 and $209,714.44 respectively.

These statements are based on the actual payments out of the treasury during the period in question (the whole of the county book keeping being based on cash transactions) but it should be noted that warrants drawn on the county general fund were outstanding on December 31st, 1907, according to the Auditor's register to the amount of $380,843.51.

Total Expenditure $847,997.80.

There had been similarly outstanding January 1st, 1907, $46,363.35, so that the amount allowed on this account was $384,479.98 in excess of the above mentioned payment of $513,517.74, giving the total expenditure allowed for the twelve months on account of the county general fund of $847,997.70.

Have Some Suggestions.

When this investigation is complete we can doubtless suggest some methods, subject to your approval, whereby a better record can be kept of the expenditures of these large sums of money. The County Government Act does not appear to place any restrictions on the scope of the bookkeeping, and it would seem reasonable to have all the receipts and disbursements segregated and classified immediately after they have occurred and to have them made a matter of permanent record. The preparation of the annual financial statement would then become a very simple matter and it might be further arranged that not only should the total amounts allowed be shown, as well as the total warrants redeemed, but that the allowance relating to each fiscal year should also be set forth.

Figures Are Misleading.

Naturally a great many claims belonging to the year 1907, for instance, are not allowed the year 1908, and this is one reason why the showing of the financial statement may sometimes be rather misleading. On the present occasion I have not attempted anything further than the carrying out of your instructions to submit to you a statement of what has been the income of the county and how the money has been expended, and even this has consumed very nearly a month's time.

Although as already stated, I have only completed the examination of three offices, a good deal has been done incidentally in the way of verifying the accounts of the auditor and the treasurer; in fact, our verification of the treasurer's receipts and disbursements segregated and classified immediately after they have occurred and to have them made a matter of permanent record. The preparation of the annual financial statement would then become a very simple matter and it might be further arranged that not only should the total amounts allowed be shown, as well as the total warrants redeemed, but that the allowance relating to each fiscal year should also be set forth.

Treasurer's Money.

On the 16th inst. I took occasion to attend when the money in the treasurer's office was counted. The cash book at that time called for $778,296.30, and the cash on hand and balances in bank were found to be as follows: Coin (the count of which was verified by me), $25,636.30; balances in bank (as to which certificates of the banks were produced), as follows: Central Bank, $150,000; Berkeley Bank of Savings and Trust Company, $100,000; Union Savings Bank, $80,000; Union National Bank, $75,000; First National Bank, $70,000; Oakland Bank of Savings, $100,000; Securities Bank and Trust Company, $72,500; Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, $15,000; Bank of Alameda, $12,500; Bank of California, $17,500; Bank of Germany, $15,000; Bank of Alameda, $15,000; Alameda Savings Bank, $15,000; Harbor Bank, $15,000; total, $778,296.30. I am, gentlemen, yours very truly,

NORMAN McLAUREN.

Following this letter are detailed statements made by Mr. McLaren giving an analysis of receipts and expenditures for the year 1907 from the different departments of the county of Alameda.

FRENCH AND SPANISH TROOPS CLASH AT CASA BLANCA

CASA BLANCA, May 14. — There was an encounter here May 12 between some French and Spanish troops, quarreled in the port. The Spaniards fired first. It is alleged, and the French Zouaves replied in kind. One Spaniard was killed and another wounded while the French had two men wounded.

The fight was the outcome of a quarrel between some Spanish soldiers and an unarmed Algerian sharpshooter.

Algerian Dying.

The Algerian was knocked down and beaten by the Spaniards and is now dying. A sergeant of Zouaves who was in charge of the gate, rushed to the rescue of the sharpshooter and with the aid of a French subaltern tried to intervene.

MADRID, May 14. — The minister of foreign affairs, upon being informed of the encounter at Casa Blanca between French and Spanish troops, demanded details and explanations from Paris. The matter has created considerable excitement here, some newspapers advising the immediate withdrawal of the Spanish troops, saying there is bad blood between them and the French, and that a repetition of the trouble is likely if they remain in contact.

To Assist Clear Up Death Mystery

Clarence Reed, who told a mysterious tale of the disappearance of the body of Emmanuelle Dolores Hildbrand, to whom he said he was engaged, appeared at police headquarters this afternoon and laid the case before Captain of Detective Peterson. Although there is nothing in the record in Alameda county to show that the young woman is dead, Reed insists that she shot herself while on a ranch in Contra Costa county while being forced into a marriage with a man named Raymond, and that she died in Oakland from her wounds. All efforts of Reed to prove his story has so far proved unavailing, and he has now decided to ask the police for assistance in clearing up the mysterious affair.

Granted Divorce on Charge of Cruelty

Mrs. Mae E. Emerson was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Charles Emerson this morning by Superior Judge Harris, on the grounds of extreme cruelty. Emerson failed to appear to contest the suit and a default was entered against him.

PROSECUTION IN RUEF CASE

board and former railroad commissioner, who has incurred the enmity of the so-called graft prosecution, was placed on the stand by Francis J. Heney at the beginning of the hearing today.

Wilson, together with Supervisor Coffey, was indicted by the grand jury for having failed to prove satisfactory to the district attorney, as a witness in the graft trial. At the session last evening both sides finished with Max Mamico, who testified largely in the same strain as did the other members of the board. Heney announced that he would close the case for the prosecution today and Judge Doelling hinted that in the event that the defense concluded without evidence, he would continue the matter of the argument until Monday, so as not to have Sunday intervene and cut the discussions in two.

Talked With Ruef.

The witness said he had several talks with Ruef about the Parkside matter. He had told Ruef that he wanted some money on that deal, that the board had been given to understand that some funds were to be forthcoming, and that it was time it was fixed up.

Racking the Witness.

"Why, you stated absolutely one time that you hadn't talked to the other supervisors; next time you said you had. Mr. Wilson, how many crimes have you committed?" "You mean bribery crimes?" "I mean any crime, discovered or undiscovered." "Those I have discovered are all," falteringly replied the witness. "No others?" "No."

Still Has the Money.

Wilson went on to say in response to the rigid searching questions of Ach, that he had not returned any of the money illegally received, but that he believes that matter was discussed by the board. He stated substantially that he had not lied before the grand jury, but there were certain matters that he recollected since in a different light from that which he previously testified to before the legal body.

800 BREWERS ON STRIKE FOR PAY

Men Demanding $1 a Week Extra Wages Tie Up Kansas City Breweries.

KANSAS CITY, May 14. — Eight hundred brewery workers employed at the different breweries of Kansas City failed to report for work this morning, and announced that a strike had been declared. The trouble arises from the re-signing of a contract before the strike expired in May.

The strike completely tied up every brewery in the city. The workers demand an increase in wages aggregating about $1 a week per man. The brewers of the city will hold a meeting today to determine what action they will take.

HEAVY RAIN FALLS THIS MORNING

Brief Shower That Menaces Hay Crop, but Will Not Damage Grain.

The rainfall in Oakland for the last twenty-four hours, up to 9 a. m. this morning, was .37 inches. The total rainfall for the month was .57 inches, making the entire number of inches which have fallen this season 18.95. This is far below the average, for the normal amount of rain is 26.52 inches.

San Francisco Wet.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14. — Rain again today, heavy showers of an inch fell in this city. Reports to the weather bureau show that there were showers throughout most of the State from San Jose north. The indications are for cloudy weather with possible showers this afternoon and tonight.

Heavy at Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, May 14. — There was a heavy fall of rain here this forenoon, followed by a drizzle this afternoon. The storm was general throughout the valley and the foothills. Rain will do much good to the grain crops.

Stockton Hay Menaced.

STOCKTON, May 14. — Rain fell here this morning, the precipitation being very heavy for a short time, amounting altogether to .45 of an inch. Unless cooler weather comes, the hay crop is in danger of being ruined.

Trace at Fresno.

FRESNO, May 14. — A trace of rain fell early this morning, followed by light showers this afternoon. Rain this time will do little good to grain or vineyards. Said the ground be wet farmers will have additional cultivating to do.

San Jose Soaked.

SAN JOSE, May 14. — Thirty-fourth of an inch of rain fell throughout the valley this forenoon.

San Diego Missed.

SAN DIEGO, May 14. — Fair weather prevailed here this morning and the forecast is for a continuance for thirty-six hours. Showery conditions prevailing in the south, the ground be wet farmers will have additional cultivating to do.

Immunity contract was good under the law.

Gumshoe's Exit.

At this point Heney received an inspiration of some sort, and hastily summoning Burns from the rear of the court room, sent him off at full speed on a private message.

Then Ach, grilling his man, made him admit that he was hoping that the three indictments against him would be dismissed if he told the truth.

Attorney Appears.

Answering questions propounded by the defendant's attorney, Wilson said that Ruef had told him that he (Ruef) would be affected politically if the Parkside and Ocean Shore deals went through. Just before the noon adjournment, Attorney W. A. Richardson, Wilson's legal advisor, in a response to a subpoena, which had been issued by the defense, appeared in the court room. The witness had spoken about a consultation which he had had with his attorney after his indictment by the grand jury and had said that Ach was at liberty to question Richardson about it, but later said that he wanted to consult the attorney before his testimony was taken and a further hearing will be had on that matter during the afternoon session.

Attorney Murphy, assistant counsel for the defendant, was busy looking up evidence and was not present during this morning's proceedings.

LIVELY CONTEST OVER HIGH SCHOOL POSITION

Professors Keyes and Cox Would Like to Succeed Prof. Pond at the High School.

The Board of Education has taken up the matter of the election of a principal for the Oakland high school to succeed Professor Pond, whose resignation takes effect in June. There are several applicants for the position, which carries with it a salary of $3000 a year. Professor Keyes, principal of the Lafayette school of this city, was at one time trying for the position, but it is now thought that he is out of the running.

Keyes Not so Strong.

He was recommended as principal of the high school to succeed Professor Pond by the high school committee, but subsequently this recommendation was turned down, as it was thought that Professor Keyes did not have the required ability to take such an important position. A change was made against him that his discipline in the Lafayette school among the boys was not up to the standard. It was further charged by certain members of the Board of Education that if he were advanced to the principalship of the high school he would be unable to fill the position because of the fact that he is not a disciplinarian.

Prof. Cox Wanted.

The members of the Board of Education took these charges in hand and it is now thought that Professor Keyes is out of the running. The old members of the board desire to secure for this position a man with broad ideas and with a record. They believe they can find these qualities in Professor Cox, principal of the Santa Rosa high school, who has been recommended as one of the best disciplinarians and teachers by the head of the United States Bureau of Education at Washington.

Highly Recommended.

Professor Cox is not an applicant for the position. The members of the board have been inquiring as to his capabilities and they think he will make a very formidable head of the high school. Besides Professor Cox there are several other candidates for this important position. It is thought, however, that the Santa Rosa man is on the inside track.

Dr. F. L. Wright's Wife Gets Divorce

Mrs. Lydia Wright was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce today from Dr. Frederick L. Wright, a prominent physician of this city, whose office is at Thirteenth and Broadway. Mrs. Wright charged her husband with desertion, claiming that he left her on April 15, 1907. The divorce decree was granted by Superior Judge Harris, who awarded the custody of the two sons of the couple to Mrs. Wright, and also awarded her $50 a month alimony, $45 for herself and $5 for the boys.

RAISE FUNDS FOR EDUCATION

Supporters of California College Propose to Increase Endowment to $100,000.

Plans to increase the endowment fund of the California College of East Oakland to $100,000 this year were discussed at this morning's session of the Pacific Coast Baptist Conference.

The demand for the immediate adequate endowment of coast colleges was the subject of Rev. H. L. Boardman's address, who spoke in part as follows: "This demand rests upon several conditions. First, the history of our colleges and of the men who have put their lives into them. To mention in a representative Baptist assembly the names of Chandler, Bailey and Johnson, Burdett, Anderson and Trimm and to mention is to touch a most responsive chord in the hearts of our people and to make most effective appeal for the making permanent and more effective the work they have wrought."

Educational Value.

Other considerations cited were: The general educational deficiency of our colleges; their Christian character, their denominational value, their relation to other well-endowed institutions and their strategic location on the Pacific Coast in the twentieth century.

Banquet This Evening.

The conference banquet will be held this evening when the following will hold the subject: "Laymen and the Work of the Kingdom." From the viewpoint of the Pastor, John M. Dean, Seattle, Wash.; "From the Viewpoint of the Layman," John H. Stevens, Oakland, Cal.; General discussion opened by W. O. Haines, Portland, Oregon.

Committees Appointed.

The committees appointed this morning were: Resolutions, F. W. Harper, Jas. Edmunds, F. A. Agar, G. F. Holt, E. L. Whitman; Nominations, W. T. Jordan, C. M. Hill, P. H. Carnish, W. H. Bowler, C. C. Pierce. Place of next meeting—A. P. Brown, A. D. Carpenter, L. W. Wiley. It was announced that Francis J. Heney, assistant prosecuting attorney of San Francisco would address the Pacific Coast Baptist Conference tomorrow evening in the First Baptist Church, Twenty-first street and Telegraph avenue. His subject will be "Civic Corruption."

this morning. They assert that the decision of who will control the convention lies with the country delegates and that only a roll call will determine where they stand. The election of Knight and Judge Henry A. Melvin of Oakland as delegates-at-large is conceded, and it has been determined to concentrate the League's fight on M. H. de Young of San Francisco and General Harrison Gray Otis of Los Angeles, who will be nominated by the Regulars. General Otis was this morning formally endorsed for delegate-at-large at a caucus of the Los Angeles delegation of Regulars. The caucus also favored the sending of a delegation to Chicago instructed for Taft.

No Compromise

Frank S. Devlin of Vallejo, president of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League, and E. A. Dickson, one of the managers, emphatically denied that any overture of a compromise has been made to the Regulars by which each faction would get two of the four delegates-at-large, the League nominating former Lieutenant-Governor Jacob H. Neff and ex-United States Senator Thomas R. Bard. General George Stone, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, who will call the convention to order, stated this morning that the Regulars will go into the convention with 435 delegates.

DELEGATES TO BE ELECTED

(Special to The Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, May 14.—The Republican State Convention to name four delegates at large to the National Convention to be held at Chicago, and also four alternates, was called to order at 2 o'clock this afternoon by General George Stone, chairman of the State Central Committee. George A. Knight was elected chairman of the convention. He made an excellent speech upon taking the chair.

The Delegates

There is no doubt about the election of delegates to Chicago, the regular Republican delegates to the Chicago convention from California.

publicans having a majority of 200 votes. They will elect as delegates to the National Convention:

GEORGE A. KNIGHT OF SAN FRANCISCO.
JUDGE HENRY A. MELVIN OF OAKLAND.
GEN. HARRISON G. OTIS OF LOS ANGELES.
M. H. DEYOUNG OF SAN FRANCISCO.

The Lincoln-Roosevelt leaguers absolutely know they are defeated, but they are still talking of filibustering in the convention.

There are such a very small band of League delegates that they are absolutely powerless to do anything.

The Lincoln-Roosevelt delegates are making threats of what they are going to do on the floor of the convention, but the fact remains that they will be powerless to do anything.

Laughable Proposition

The league has made a proposition to the regulars that they divide the delegates at large to the Chicago convention half in half, that is two for the league and two for the regulars. This suggestion was so ridiculous that it was quickly laughed down by the organization men.

The convention will undoubtedly pass resolutions endorsing the administration of Governor Gillett and also endorsing Secretary Taft for the presidency.

REGULARS EXPECT LARGE MAJORITY

SACRAMENTO, May 14.—"You can say to THE TRIBUNE," said one of the best nomination will be made by way of an amendment to the report of the committee recommending the selection of George A. Knight as chairman.

Bring Out a Vote.

This will bring out a vote on the proposition and that vote will determine whether or not the convention will conclude its work today or adjourn until tomorrow before completing the work which it has been called to perform.

Dilatory Tactics.

If there is a protracted session it will be because of obstructive tactics which may be practiced by the minority, that is the opposition to the Regular Republicans, but the latter have no fear on that score. They say that the vote which elects George A. Knight as temporary chairman will tell the story of the convention.

Mr. Davis was also uninformed as to how many delegates the opposition had elected.

Opposition Uninformed.

This lack of information was admitted by Frank Devlin, of Vallejo, who is the official leader of the opposition, although he stated that he was confident of having what he termed a working majority in the convention.

This was a statement which could not be corroborated for the reason that, at the time, many of the delegates had not reported and it was not known how they stood with respect to the opposition.

Among the representatives of the opposition, wherever one met them, there was a feeling of uncertainty and distrust, whereas on the other hand, the regular Republicans were positive and confident, knowing that they not only had a liberal majority on the face of the returns but that they were certain also of securing additional votes from many of the men on the opposition ticket.

At the present writing, the only names put forth by the opposition for delegates at large, who are generally known as ex-Senator Thomas R. Bard of Ventura and Col. E. A. Forbes of Marysville. There are also lesser lights mentioned spasmodically, but they are slightly known even in their own localities.

Headquarters Opened.

The headquarters of Judge Melvin have been established in the Capital Hotel and the place, since its opening, has been filled with friends of the Judge who are bending every energy to make doubly sure his election.

On another floor of the same hostelry, the opposition has opened headquarters. On the second floor of the Golden Eagle Hotel are located the headquarters of the Regular Republicans. Here Gen. Geo. Stone and a number of other leading members of the party may be found almost at any hour.

Alameda County Men.

Last night, there was quite a representation here of the Alameda county Republicans, but the full quota did not put in an appearance until this morning. It was almost every delegate, as also a large number of members of the party who were interested in the outcome, made their appearance.

Judge Melvin's Views.

Regarding the withdrawal of Governor Gillett from the race for delegate-at-large in favor of Judge Melvin, the latter

TRIBUNE'S PICTURE OF PARDEE SETS G. O. P. DELEGATES ON FIRE

Convention Members Stirred by Disclosure

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SACRAMENTO, May 14.—The Republican State Convention was called to order at 2 o'clock this afternoon in a circus tent, which had been erected inside the Agricultural pavilion on the Capitol grounds. The walls were hung with Presidential portraits and streamers in national colors. The seats of the Alameda county delegation were immediately under the chairman's desk. Delegates from many counties entered the hall reading copies of THE TRIBUNE.

Commenting upon the picture in the paper, showing George C. Pardee dicker with A. Ruef for votes of the San Francisco delegation at the last Republican State convention in Santa Cruz, George A. Knight of San Francisco said to THE TRIBUNE correspondent: "That's a great picture. Everybody is talking about it. It's setting them on fire."

Grove L. Johnson of Sacramento said: "Have you the heart to publish such a picture? Have you no respect for the tender feelings of George Centipede Pardee?" with emphasis on the gentleman said today:

"I became a candidate for delegate-at-large to the national convention, first, because of the resolutions adopted by the Republican County Central Committee of Alameda county; second, because my dear friends in East Oakland made my nomination an issue."

Governor Gillett's Action.

"There has been in the newspapers, during the past few days, some question as to whether or not Governor Gillett would be a candidate for delegate at large to the Republican National Convention."

"I believe that, had the Governor been a candidate, he would undoubtedly have been nominated by the convention."

"It may be that some other man would have been beaten."

"The Governor, however, has most magnanimously agreed not only not to be a candidate, but, in his withdrawal, presents my name."

Work for Taft.

"In the event of my election as delegate-at-large, to the National Convention, I shall do as I have said I would do, that is, my utmost to perpetuate the policy of President Roosevelt and, following the expressed wish of the Republicans of the State of California, shall use my utmost endeavor to secure the nomination for the presidency of W. H. Taft."

L. A. COUNTY HOLDS ITS CAUCUS

(Special to The Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, May 14.—The caucus of the regular Republicans from Los Angeles county at noon endorsed as delegates at large to the National Republican Convention Harrison Gray Otis of Los Angeles, Geo. A. Knight of San Francisco, and M. H. de Young of San Francisco and Governor James N. Gillett, with the understanding, however, that the Governor will resign in behalf of Judge H. A. Melvin of Oakland.

GEO. A. KNIGHT TO HEAD DELEGATES

(Special to The Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, May 14.—The executive committee of the Republican State Central Committee met this morning and decided to allow the name of Geo. A. Knight to go before the convention for chairman. At noon today several delegations to the State Republican convention had not reported, and in the estimation of the leaders of the Lincoln-Roosevelt league, left the standing of the organization in the convention which is to assemble at 2 o'clock this afternoon in doubt, although Senator Belshaw of Contra Costa county was inclined to the belief that the league would have a majority of the delegates. Most in evidence among the leaguers is William R. Davis of Oakland, who aspires to the chairmanship of the convention.

Regulars in Control.

Davis, however, says that he has no knowledge of the standing of the two parties. Gen. George Stone of the Republican State committee scouts the Belshaw idea that the league or opposiword "centipede." Continuing, Mr. Johnson said: "I saw what that picture illustrates. I saw Pardee with Ruef on the beach at Santa Cruz, and I directed attention to it."

Then Mr. Johnson passed on, greatly overjoyed. County Clerk J. P. Cook, in passing THE TRIBUNE desk, announced that the Lincoln-Roosevelt Leaguers in the Alameda county delegation would vote for Judge Melvin as delegate-at-large, and that the regular organization would have a majority of 165.

General George Stone, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, said that before getting down to business he would introduce Miss Rockwell, who aroused the delegates to a great pitch of enthusiasm by singing the "Star-Spangled Banner."

General Stone stated that the purpose of the convention was to select four delegates at large to the national convention at Chicago and the appointment of a State Central Committee.

General Stone stated further that the selection of a temporary chairman would be left to the delegates. He then called John L. McNab of Mendocino county to the platform who placed G. A. Knight in nomination. The mention of Knight's name evoked a storm of applause.

tion will control the convention. "And you will see that the opposition has not more than one hundred and seventy-five votes. The regular Republican organization will control the convention with ease."

It was rumored this morning that the opposition was to propose a division of the four delegates to be elected by the convention, each party being allowed two. Commenting upon this rumor, General Stone said: "There will be no compromise of any kind. The issue will be determined by the votes of the delegates. The opposition has treated us shamefully and abusively and there will be no compromise with them."

Melvin Strong.

The disposition of the leaguers today was less demonstrative than it was last night. The defeat of Devlin, the president of the League, as a candidate in the third congressional district was discouraging but the defeat of Chester Rowell, the organizer of the League in the Needham district was most depressing.

Judge Melvin will be put in nomination for delegate-at-large by Dr. A. K. Crawford.

Geo. A. Knight will be nominated as chairman by John L. McNab of Mendocino county. The weather is decidedly unpleasant, rain falling in continuous downpour. THE TRIBUNE is in great

ANTI-REGULARS IN OPEN CAUCUS

(By Associated Press.)

SACRAMENTO, May 14.—An enthusiastic open caucus was held in Turner Hall by the Lincoln-Roosevelt delegates shortly before 12 o'clock. Lee R. Gates of Los Angeles called the meeting to order and A. J. Wallace was chosen chairman.

The greatest enthusiasm was aroused as the Amador and Yolo county delegations, conceded to the "regular" ranks, walked into the hall and announced their allegiance to the reformers. Placer county came over earlier in the day, which means a total gain today of seven delegates for the Lincoln-Roosevelt League. The caucus endorsed ex-Mayor Davis of Oakland for chairman, J. H. Neff, Thomas R. Bard, Colonel E. A. Forbes and Dr. Chester H. Rowell for delegates-at-large to the National convention, and the following for alternates: Charles R. Wheeler, San Francisco; William J. Hunsaker, Los Angeles; Mayor Clinton White, Sacramento, and George Jones, Fresno.

Senator Black Endorsed.
A caucus of the Fifth Congressional district delegation this morning formally endorsed Edwin T. McMurray and Senator Marshall Black for delegates to Chicago from that district and Rolla V. Watt of San Francisco as alternate for McMurray. No alternate was named for Senator Black. This district is controlled by the Lincoln-Roosevelt League. The "regulars," who are in the minority, endorsed John C. Daly and George C. Ross for delegates.

The Seventh Congressional district caucus today named Major John Norton and Henry Mayberry for delegates, with Frank A. Garbutt and A. C. Bird as alternates. The caucus also announced its support of Knight, Gillett, Otis and de Young for delegates-at-large, with the understanding that the governor would withdraw after being elected, and that Judge Melvin would be chosen in his place.

demand, the lobbies of the hotels being filled with delegates reading it. Especially interesting to them is the showing of dicker between Ruef and Pardee on the beach at Santa Cruz at the last State convention.

Method of Procedure. As understood up to the present time, the method of procedure in the convention, which will early show what is to be the outcome, will be the presentation of the name of George A. Knight as candidate for temporary chairman of the convention, on the recommendation of the executive committee.

If there should be no opposition to the nomination of Mr. Knight, and he should be elected by a vote over and above the majority of the delegates in the convention, that would clearly show that the other gentlemen named would also secure places in the representation in the national Republican convention.

Davis to Be Named.

In the event of there being opposition to the election of George A. Knight as temporary chairman, it will first be indicated by an attempt to elect to the position Wm. R. Davis of Oakland.

Mr. Davis will be placed in nomination by Lee R. Gates of Los Angeles. This fourteenth Annual Convention Calls Together Large Crowd of People.

PASADENA, May 14.—The fourteenth convention of the California Bankers' Association, which was called to order at the Hotel Maryland this morning by President George W. Pelletier of Sacramento, is believed to have broken all previous records for attendance. The bankers in attendance, many of whom have brought their families, will find their time about equally divided between business and pleasure.

Former Secretary of the Treasury Lyman T. Gage and State Treasurer W. R. Williams are among the speakers.

The members of the executive commission appointed to consider reforms to the state banking laws are to be heard in response to an invitation extended by the association some time ago.

Mayor Thomas J. Earley greeted the delegates on behalf of the city and James K. Lynch of San Francisco responded.

MASTER PLUMBERS CLOSE THEIR SESSIONS

Uniform Sanitary Laws for State
Are Urged by the Delegates.

The last session of the Eighth annual convention of the Associated Master Plumbers was held today at Maple Hall. The convention has been an important one, for many knotty questions of interest to the association have been decided.

The association is endeavoring to have the State enact uniform sanitary laws. This is one of the most important subjects which the Council has been called to act upon. An effort is being made to force plumbers to pass a State examination as a condition for being allowed to work. This examination would prove whether plumbers were capable of doing the required sanitary work.

Election of Officers.

The annual election of officers will be held this afternoon. Many of the officers who have previously served will be re-elected. There will probably be a decided change in the State executive as the body of directors is called. Daniel Crowley will be re-elected president, so, also, will Vice-President C. H. Julian. John L. E. Firmin, who has been the secretary of the state organization for the past eight years, has been instrumental in bringing it to its present influential position, will be elected again. U. M. Wilson, treasurer of the organization, will be re-elected if he will accept the office again.

The social side of the convention has been a great success. The ball last night was attended by over 300.

Jastro Taken Ill At White House

WASHINGTON, May 14.—H. A. Jastro of California, president of the American Livestock Association, was taken suddenly ill at the White House today and had to be removed to one of the local hotels. Jastro was to have spoken at the Governors' conference this afternoon. His paper was read by W. C. Barnes of New Mexico. Later it was learned that Jastro's illness was not of a serious nature, he having been affected by the extreme heat of yesterday and today.

ANCIENT ORDER OF FORESTERS, 13TH CONVENTION

HIGH COURT FORESTERS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

Discuss New Building for San Francisco.

The project of the purchase of a piece of land on which to erect a Foresters' building in San Francisco was discussed this morning at the High Court convention of the Ancient Order of Foresters held at Room 3 Hall. The delegates of the convention also decided to admit members of other orders who were formerly antagonistic toward the order of Foresters. The proposition of constituting a central fund for the order was defeated. The initiation fee of new members of the ages of 40 to 45 will be $10; from 45 to 50, $15.

Election of Officers.

A feature of this afternoon's meeting was the election of officers, which was as follows: Frank W. Hogan, San Jose, high chief ranger; J. J. Roberts, Oakland, high sub-chief ranger; C. W. Lunt, San Francisco, high court treasurer; William Wallace, San Francisco, high court secretary; George W. Brown, high court senior woodward; E. J. Murphy, high court junior woodward; J. J. Congressman Knowland Is Honored at Washington

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The Republican caucus recently held in this city voted that a committee of five be appointed from Congress to prepare a currency bill. This was looked upon as a most important matter, and Congressmen from all over the country were anxious to be named on it. It remained, however, for Congressman Joseph R. Knowland of Alameda, in the Third Congressional District of California, to be named one of the members of this important committee. He is the only member west of Illinois.

Great Honor.

Probably this is the greatest honor conferred on any member of Congress from California for a great many years. Congressman Knowland stands well at the head among the Congressmen at Washington, and the fact that he has been appointed on this committee shows that ability counts at the capitol. Congressman Knowland is now at work with the other members of the committee on the currency bill.

His friends say that he is making a splendid record during this session of Congress.

TWO WOMEN CAPTURE BURGLAR

where he is held pending an investigation of the case.

Jewelry Missing.

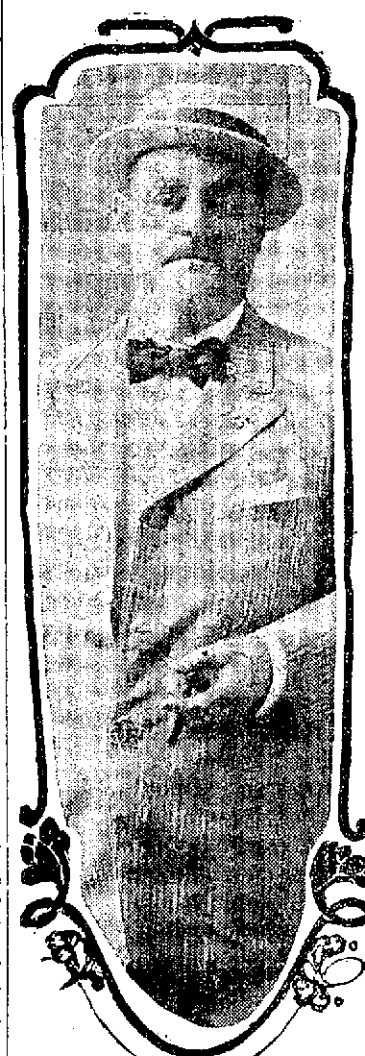

It developed at police headquarters that Sinclair had stolen three stick pins, a gold chain, a ladies' gold chain, two razors, a bottle of cologne and $2.05 in coin from room 103, occupied by George Hanson. A number of thefts have been committed in the hotel of late and this fact aroused the suspicion of Miss Garton when she saw Sinclair, a stranger, roaming about the house. Miss Garton, who is extremely modest concerning her daring capture, told of the case this morning as follows:

"I had reached the top floor of the hotel in attending to my duties and was just about to enter one of the rooms when I glanced down the stairway and saw a man on the second floor acting mysteriously. He saw me, also, and started down the stairs, but I followed and overtook him and asked him what he was doing. He said that he had been up to Mr. Hanson's rooms after a letter he had been sent for. I asked him to let me see the letter, and when he refused I asked him to show me the paper. This he also refused to do and I asked him to go with me to the landlady of the house.

"This he agreed to do, but when we got to the lower floor he said he was in a hurry and started to leave the place. At this I called to Mrs. Meyer and both of us grappled with the intruder and held him while the police were telephoned for. He did not offer much resistance and went quietly with the policemen upon their arrival. There have been some thefts committed in the house recently, so I was suspicious when I saw the man wandering about the hallways."

The arrested man has been in similar trouble before, according to the police, and Miss Garton has been complimented by the officials for her bravery in causing the arrest of the alleged thief.

MINSTRELS OPEN AT MACDONOUGH TONIGHT

LEW DOCKSTADER

The attraction at the Macdonough Theater tonight will be Lew Dockstader and his minstrels in an entirely new performance, which is guaranteed to be far and away the best that he has ever presented. Not a single feature remains from preceding seasons. Mr. Dockstader's invariable rule that every season must see a clean sweep in the program has been carried out to the letter.

For five months Messrs. Louis C. and John Young, the famous New York scenic artists, worked to perfect the triumph of stagecraft which will be the setting for the first part of Mr. Dockstader's entertainment. Such was the success of last season's first part scene that it was decided to elaborate the jewel idea and build a scene of surpassing brilliancy.

Mr. Dockstader personally has the best material he has used for many seasons, and when it is remembered that he has never presented anything but up to date specialties, the strength of his present offering will be appreciated. His part in the second section of the show will be largely devoted to politics, but treated from an entirely new viewpoint. The minstrels will continue through to Saturday night, matinee Saturday.

IS OFFERED BRIBE TO DISREGARD INJUNCTION

Trustees Fear Recurrence of Garbage Trouble of a Month Ago.

BERKELEY, May 14.—At a secret conference of the Town Trustees to discuss street matters last evening information reached them that a bribe had been offered one of the scavengers to dump his wagon within the boundaries covered by the injunction issued last month on behalf of the Ocean View Improvement Club, on what is known as the old boneyard property at the foot of Bancroft road, just north of the town line on the water front. At the present time the town is stilling what is known as the Nickel property, north of the boneyard property for a dumping ground, subject to the acquiescence of the property owners in the Ocean View region. Of late there have been rumblings of hostilities from the neighborhood, as the defeat of the incinerator bonds convinced the people that the temporary arrangement promised to continue indefinitely.

Another Fight Wanted.

The Trustees intimate that the bribe was offered in the hope that, with a violation of the injunction, the people in the neighborhood would have an excellent opportunity to stir up the while garbage agitation and ask for a second injunction that would close the whole country between the town and the country line to the scavengers. None of the trustees would tell where the information of the attempted bribe came from, but all admitted that a revival of the troubles of a month ago, when shotgun methods were invoked, are likely to be repeated.

Oakland Harbor Improvement.

The Chamber of Commerce has begun an agitation for a revision of the plans of improvement of the inner harbor by advocating the expenditure of what remains in the Congressional appropriation for the widening and deepening of the channel between Chestnut and Fallon streets. The program previously agreed upon was for the cutting of a comparatively shallow channel along the East Oakland frontage. There can be no reasonable doubt harbored in anyone's mind that one improvement is as essential as the other. The only question for consideration is which shall take precedence.

If past experience in the work of deepening the harbor for commerce is of any value, and it certainly ought to be, a grave mistake was made in its earlier history by undertaking the dredging of Brooklyn basin and the opening of the tidal canal before the lower reaches of the harbor were dredged to a depth suitable to the wants of commerce. Doubtless the late Colonel Mendell consented to the dredging of the basin for the sake of reclaiming the Alameda marshes at the upper end of the harbor; but the work at that time had the effect of shoaling, in a marked measure, the channel partly dredged west of the basin to the harbor entrance and the forming of a bar there which had to be dredged again. The plan carried out unquestionably increased the expense of harbor improvement, because it facilitated the refilling of the area once dredged, and the scouring action of the canal reshaped Brooklyn basin. The Chamber of Commerce is unquestionably right in its advocacy of first completing the improvement of what has already been made available to shipping, so that commerce may get the maximum benefit from it. If the dredging of the basin can be carried on simultaneously with the widening and deepening of the section between Chestnut and Fallon streets, where the bulk of Oakland harbor's commerce is now concentrated, all the better. Indeed, if Congress was to act wisely on the subject, it would appropriate enough money to expedite the whole work of harbor improvement as planned at as early a date as possible, for commerce is clamoring loudly for the facilities which a completed harbor will provide for it.

The work of disposing of the city's garbage by carrying it out to sea has been finally started. It may turn out to be the most satisfactory method of solving the problem. Some citizens may recall the fact that an effort was made to introduce this system of disposing of the garbage eighteen years ago, but it was then defeated by a silurian Board of Public Works. Meantime the West Oakland people have been compelled to suffer from the nuisance of the dumps, which are now in a fair way, apparently, of being permanently abolished. It is to be hoped that the new plan of garbage disposal will prove a success in every respect.

Progress of the Western Pacific.

Livermore is arranging to celebrate tomorrow, on an elaborate scale, the completion of track-laying on the roadbed of the Western Pacific Railroad, which will give it duplicate rail connection with Stockton. The people of Livermore cherish great expectations over the opening of the new line, as they have good reasons to do. It ought to be productive of much benefit to them. Competition in railroading, like in every other business, begets trade and facilities for a broader development of local resources, and in their wake, of course, an enlarged prosperity.

Oakland can well afford to join with Livermore in its jubilation. It will not be many months before the new line will be completed and in operation to this city. It was originally promised that it would be in operation in September. Since then the time was shortened to August, and still later the engineers in charge have reported that, in all probability, the line would be ready for business from Oroville to Oakland early in July, as an addition of several thousand men has been made to the working force. The main part of the heavy tunnel work between this city and Stockton has been done. The roadbed has been constructed to Marysville, save the spanning of the American river, and the trestling and bridge work there is pushed ahead rapidly.

Traffic between Marysville and Oroville is to be started in a few days. The first passenger car to be used on this section of the line reached Marysville two or three days ago, and the track has been laid from that city to a point fifteen miles north of Oroville in the Feather river canyon. The whistles of the locomotives of the Western Pacific will be heard in Oakland undoubtedly sooner than most of its citizens at the present time suspect. When it is, it will be a great event, as the presumption is reasonable that it will add immensely to Oakland's prosperity and materially enhance the values here of property tributary to the new line.

It is unfortunate that the bluejackets of the big naval fleet anchored in the bay should have marred the festivities in progress in their honor by precipitating a riot on the San Francisco water front. But it would be unfair to condemn them at this stage of the inquiry into the causes of the untoward event, for they may have had provocation which incited the demonstration.

Chinese Anti-Japanese Boycott.

Since the seizure of a Japanese merchantman by a Chinese warship off Macao, a Portuguese port near the southern border of China, on the ground that its cargo consisted of arms and ammunition consigned to rebels in the southern provinces, there has been friction between the governments at Tokio and Peking. The Japanese government demanded the release of the vessel because it had been unlawfully seized in neutral waters and for the further reason that it was not responsible for the contraband traffic, if such was being carried on in Japanese bottoms, as the Chinese government assumed, and that the latter had not proved the contraband character of the cargo. With a good deal of reluctance the Chinese government released the ship, but her cargo was not allowed to be sent to its destination.

The incident incited the Chinese merchants of Canton to such an extent that they instituted a boycott on Japanese goods, like the one that Wu Ting Fang, the present Chinese minister to Washington, started and fomented against American goods in retaliation for the passage of the act of Congress now in force perfecting the exclusion of Chinese coolies and other undesirable of the Mongolian race from entering the United States. The veiled countenance of the boycott by the Peking government at a later date prompted the Japanese government to make a naval demonstration off the coast of China, which induced the Peking authorities to notify the provincial viceroys throughout the empire that the boycott must be stopped. China is in no condition to provoke a war with Japan or any other naval power, even though backed in the position it took on the seizure of the Japanese merchantman by Russia, as was generally suspected to be the case. All of the provincial viceroys have endeavored to stop the boycott, but the Cantonese merchants are keeping it up, and the Japanese ambassador at Peking has been forced thereby to renew protesting representations at the Chinese capital.

From an impartial view of the case, Japanese commercialism was doubtless guilty of giving material aid to the rebellion which disturbing the southern provinces of China; but it has not been proved that the Japanese government was abetting it, either directly or indirectly. The more enlightened Chinese are evidently taking this view of the case, for, in addition to the measures adopted by the imperial government and the provincial authorities to suppress the boycott, twelve hundred Chinese students in Tokio have united in protesting against its continuance. At first glance, it seems to be a remarkable demonstration, in many respects, and the suspicion may lie that these students have been influenced, in a measure, by their environments. But, after all, when it is remembered that Japan has, since the close of the war with Russia, exerted herself in a friendly way to rehabilitate and modernize the Chinese people, which these students understand and appreciate, there is nothing surprising in the movement. China and Japan have interests in common to safeguard which the boycott imperils, and, in all probability, the unfriendly commercial action taken by a few Cantonese merchants will soon die out, as the boycott against American goods did, and for similar reasons.

Quips and Jokes

WHY SHE BLUSHED.
The late Bishop Coleman of Delaware was somewhat deaf. Once while attending a banquet he was assigned to a young lady who did not know of his affliction. In consequence conversation was found to be somewhat difficult. In a burst of enthusiasm the young lady inquired, "Bishop, do you like bananas?" At first, the prelate did not reply, but upon the question being repeated he admitted confidentially, "I must say I still prefer the old-fashioned nightgown — May Lippincott's."

ONCE.
Once there was a conference of learned linguists, antiquarians, astronomers, anatomists, mathematicians, microscopists, chemists, ethnologists and botanists. "Gentlemen," said the chairman of the meeting, "we have assembled for the purpose of solving an elevated loop problem. What is your pleasure?" (Note—So many solutions were presented, no two of which were alike, that the conference could not agree upon any one, and a lack of space forbids the publication of the proceedings in full.)

FAME.
"Who was James Roswell?" asked the teacher of the class in English literature. "He was Dr. Samuel Johnson's press agent," answered the young man with the bad eye.

Miss Loie Fuller Employed Scion of Royalty Prince Bojidar Karageorgevitch Lacks Food

PARIS, May 14.—Miss Loie Fuller has not been in good health since the death of her mother, to whom she was devoted. But she told the correspondent who called on her of many projects same time to talk about her biography, which is now being printed in French. The book will describe vividly Miss Loie's experience in Europe, where she has made most interesting and highly diversified acquaintances.

For instance, Prince Bojidar Karageorgevitch, who died recently, translated the book into French.

Prince Bojidar, a cousin of King Peter I of Serbia, was one of the most remarkable figures in Paris. A student by disposition, who had a perfect acquaintance with many languages; a traveler who had published a book describing his impressions of India, knowing all the chief political characters of Europe, Prince Bojidar still found it very difficult to make a living.

He developed, perforce, great skill in working in metals, gold particularly. His artistic sense enabled him to produce beautiful ornaments, such as brooches and bracelets. While these were the fashion the scion of Black George of Serbia had a fair income, but he deprived himself even of necessities that his mother, Princess Karageorgevitch, might maintain a respectable position in the world.

At other times, while welcome in most exclusive houses, Prince Bojidar found himself in direct need. Sometimes, especially when Waldeck-Rousseau was in power, the prince would be asked to a dinner at the Elysee Palace or at the Premier's home. The dinner was his only meal of the day. With his month's income he could not have bought the glass of wine that lent further brilliancy to his conversation. But often hunger made him so weak that a bowl of nourishing broth would have been infinitely more welcome to him than the elaborate banquet at which he sat.

Prince Bojidar often wore a blouse and went in the little taverns which workmen affect where one can buy a luncheon, more or less shadowy, for five cents and wash it down, if he pleases, with water from the pump. This the Prince's friends regarded as an eccentricity or perhaps as an ostentatious display of his democratic sentiments. The fact was Prince Bojidar often had difficulty in getting five cents to pay for the wretched luncheon.

He died in subject poverty. He was ill four days before his friends knew it, and during that time had scarcely anything to eat. He had wasted to a shadow when some of his friends arrived at his miserable lodgings, and took him in a motor car to a hospital. "You can take away my body," said the Prince feebly, "but I feel my soul escaping."

Prince Bojidar belonged to the oldest branch of the Serbian royal family, the Karageorgevitch line and he was too proud to ask King Peter to help him. But once his royal kinsman invited the Prince to Belgrade, promising to "do something for him," Prince Bojidar hoped this meant an adequate pension for his mother. But at dinner time with the King he found his reward—the cross of a Serbian order wrapped in his napkin.

But to return to Loie Fuller—always discovering new talent, she has found Zoula Bonca, a Polish girl of eight years, who already dances so well that Miss Loie prophesies Zoula will become her successor.

MOTHERS

To Confer on Pure Milk

NEW YORK, May 14.—The pure milk question and its relation to infant mortality, the education of children are among the important matters that will be considered at the Mothers' Education or convention of parents, which will open in Madison Square Garden on the evening of May 14 and continue for one week.

Prominent physicians and others who realize the importance of the milk question will show by practical illustration and lecture the work that has been done and is planned to improve the milk supply.

The education of children, particularly in manual training, practical training of the crippled and blind in the use of the typewriter, and also examples of the work of these children, will be included in the exposition. Foods and necessities for infants and older children will be shown, demonstrated and talked about, and authorities will explain to mothers the proper care of their children from infancy to and through their school days.

Mrs. W. E. Sharon entertained the members of the Thursday Whist Club today at their last meeting for the season and besides the members several guests enjoyed the delightful season at cards.

Miss Marie Tinton and Thomas Wilson, both of Oakland, officiated as bridesmaid and groomsmen, respectively.

A sumptuous wedding supper was served immediately following the ceremony. A feature was the dignified place cards in the shape of a slipper handed out by the hostess. The couple will make their home in Visalia.

The marriage of Miss Leona E. Osborn and Fred V. Peterson took place May 4 in Santa Rosa, the Rev. Francis Downs officiating. The couple were attended by

SEEKS TO SELL $2500 NECKLACE FOR FOOD

BERLIN, May 14.—A $2500 diamond necklace was offered to a jeweler yesterday for a small sum by a widow who said she was poor and in need of food. The jeweler immediately called in the police.

To the authorities the widow explained that the necklace was picked up in the street by a coal man who was carrying her and who, supposing it was worth $1000, had given it to her daughter for a plaything.

The newspapers reported the find and the wife of Imperial Court. Tense Fred Kraus went to the police after reading the story and identified the necklace as one which had been given to her as a souvenir of her husband's last tour in the United States and which she lost about four years ago.

"Well, I knew a Hamilton county woman for twenty-six years, and I went to her and said: 'Will you marry me?' She replied: 'Sure, and I will, Frank,' and we got hitched the following week."

"Yes, I sent my $5 to Mrs. Glinn, and was given the address of No. 305. She is Miss Ida Miller, a New York state woman," said C. S. Runkles, a Nebraska school teacher. "I'm still corresponding with her."

"What are you going to do now?" he was asked after a long adjournment.

"Take this mileage and go to see her. If she is what her letters make me think, I'll marry her and take her back to Nebraska."

Edmer Holloway, jeweler of Kimball, Ind., which he says is a small place, wanted a wealthy wife and corresponded with two women whose names were furnished by the Glinn agency.

Miss Genevieve Chambers entertained at luncheon yesterday for Miss Elinor Parker, who is visiting Mrs. E. A. Heron and Miss Blanche Hart of Galesburg, Illinois, who is the guest of the hostess. told how the business was conducted. Harrison Miller of Clarion, Iowa, told of his failure to find a $22,000 widow, Newberry Sassenan, a truck farmer of Denver, complained because Louise Hardison of Fort Worth, Texas, failed to accept his proposal of marriage. Other witnesses called by the government were Michael Zuck, Rochester, New York; Mrs. Mary O. Thorn, Cassville, New York, and Miss Abbie P. Nix of St. Louis, Mo.

Assistant District Attorney Seward S. It is anticipated the case will be given into the hands of the jury today. It is undecided whether or not Mrs. Glinn will take the witness stand in her own behalf.

U. S. MINISTER'S DAUGHTER WEDS

IT BECAME KNOWN TODAY THAT MISS GLADYS SQUIRES, DAUGHTER OF THE UNITED STATES MINISTER TO PANAMA, HERBERT G. SQUIRES, WAS SECRETLY MARRIED TO LIEUTENANT HARRY E. ROUSSEAU, A MEMBER OF THE PANAMA CANAL COMMISSION. THE CEREMONY WAS PERFORMED BY JUDGE HEZEKIAH A. SUDGER OF NORTH CAROLINA, WHO IS A JUDGE OF THE CANAL ZONE IN THE DISTRICT OF ANRON.

Deserts 'Man-is-Bad' Colony to Wed

Taught to Shun the Sterner Sex Girl, 29 Years Old, Marries First Male She Ever Meets

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 14.—To remain secluded in a community of women, believing marriage to be a sin, until 28 years of age, then to wed the first man she ever met after doing more than half the courting herself, was the strange story of Mrs. B. F. Hoover of Philadelphia, formerly Miss Adah Pratt of Washington.

The couple were wedded here recently and Mrs. Hoover afterwards consented to tell her strange life story. Nearly thirty years ago, in Texas, where Mrs. Hoover's mother lived at the time, a Mrs. Martha McWhirter of Waco announced that she had had a visitation from the Almighty, and had been told that it was sinful to live with man.

Accordingly she left her husband, and gathering about her a small party of women who were brought to her belief, she went to the little town of Belton and there established headquarters of the new creed.

Mrs. Pratt was one of her converts, and, leaving her husband, she joined the colony, where, two months afterward, the present Mrs. Hoover was born.

There were ten living children in the colony, all girls. Ten years ago the commonwealth moved taking up a farm of 112 acres in Montgomery county, Maryland, and a large house in Washington.

The children of the community were taught to beware of men. They were never permitted to have acquaintance with any of them. They were instructed in work and were sent regularly to church, although never permitting to affiliate themselves with any particular denomination.

Of course they saw men. Mrs. Hoover says she often had noticed them. But she never paid attention to any of them until she met Hoover. "Five of the girls grew up," she said, "and then slipped away to be married. Of course, they were regarded as sinners. I thought them bad, as did all those in the 'Commonwealth.' But about a year ago I went downtown with a girl friend and she introduced me to Hoover."

"Somehow or other I could not get him out of my mind. Later I met him downtown again, and several times after that. Then he told me he was going to leave the city and asked me to write. I told him I would."

Hoover is a hotel clerk, and after leaving Washington he went to Chicago. Later he decided to come to Philadelphia, and wrote his intention to Miss Pratt in Washington.

"I was crazy to see him," said she, "and decided to risk the fear of my mother's displeasure and give him a surprise party. So I slipped quietly out of the house and came here. When I found Hoover he was greatly surprised."

"Way, Adah, have you come up here to marry me?" he asked. "I don't know that I thought much about the matter," I replied. "I just felt I had to see you again."

"Well, will you marry me?" he asked. "It took me by surprise, although I was not wholly unprepared for it. I answered, 'I will,' and then the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. E. G. Pidge, pastor of the Fourth Baptist Church in the parsonage at night. The same evening the bride wrote to her mother, but has not received an answer yet."

E. L. Glinn, manager of the International Corresponding Association, Frank J. Kohler of Sweetwine, O., related how he grew tired of trying to gain a wife through correspondence, and how he had won a wife in his own town after five minutes' courtship.

These are some of the developments in the crusade against matrimonial agencies which is being waged by United States district attorneys and postoffice inspectors.

Unaccompanied by her pretty daughter, Miss Titian Scott, Mrs. E. L. Glinn appeared for the second day in Judge Bethes's courtroom and heard witnesses tell their experiences in hunting affinities through her bureau. At times when somebody's soul partner would speak of disappointments she would remove her eyeglasses, wipe her eyes with a silk handkerchief, and then glance appealingly at the jury.

"Your daughter said she would sacrifice her life to save you. Where is she now?" was asked. "She is at home. That is all we will say," answered Attorney Murphy, representing Mrs. Glinn.

"You saw yesterday the woman my son was said to be mated to," said Frank J. Kohler, a hardware merchant, who claims he is worth $9000, and makes $5000 a year.

"The $12,000 widow with a $3000 income was Mrs. Mary Quinn of Glinn."

Soul Maters Hear Their Victims Tell of Trying to Find Affinities Through Them

CHICAGO, May 14.—Charles Sims, 400 employees throughout the United States.

"The public employees' committee, with Secretary Tatt as chairman, is working to obtain improvements in the conditions of employees, and is composed of officials who have many men in their charge—chairmen of boards of health, boards of safety, etc. The New York section of the women's committee has two active committees, corresponding to the men's, and are co-operating with them."

"A committee on needs of workers in specific trades, with Mrs. J. Gordon Harman as chairman, are co-operating with the welfare department in improving the conditions of employees. A committee on welfare work for government employees is co-operating with the men's public employees' committee, in obtaining the improvement of the conditions of the workers. The chairman is Mrs. Julia K. West."

NEW YORK, May 14.—The National Civic Federation will complete the formation of a committee of prominent women of the United States to aid the work of the Federation's Industrial Welfare Department. Chairman Easley announces that as soon as the names of the women who will accept appointment are received the executive council will appoint the committee, which will be called together to organize in Washington, D. C.

At the same time there will be meetings of the welfare department and the public employees' committee. The national women's committee on organization, as well as the New York branch, will be invited. FRENCH COURTS SAY THAT BOTH THE M'KEES WERE TO BLAME FOR THEIR MARITAL TROUBLES

Mrs. Hart McKee, known on this coast as Mrs. Hugh Tevis, at last gets divorce

HART M'KEE AND WIFE ARE NOW DIVORCED

French Court Finds Both Contributed to Their Unhappiness.

Also That McKee Was Cruel to His Wife and That He Violated "Elementary Decency" in Making Public His Wife's Love Letters to Him.

PARIS, May 14.—The court today in granting the Hart-McKee divorce finds that both Mr. and Mrs. McKee had contributed to the unhappiness of their household. Mrs. McKee is given the custody of their child with the provision that Mr. McKee be allowed to have the child one month yearly as well as being permitted to see it twice a week if living in the same city or town.

The court also found that Mr. McKee's charges that Col. Baxter and Mrs. McKee, his daughter had inspired libellous articles against him in the American newspapers were not proved and dismissed the case.

Mr. McKee was ordered to contribute 1000 francs monthly for the support of his child. The divorce suit was brought in this city by Mrs. A. Hart McKee, formerly Mrs. Hugh Tevis.

The court was of the opinion that a reconciliation between the McKees was impossible so a separation was the wisest thing. It found the husband guilty of violence and of having committed grave wrongs towards his wife, saying he had yielded on the slightest provocation to the impulses of his vicious nature.

His Love Letters.

He had aggravated these wrongs by bringing charges against his wife which he could not prove, as well as by having read in court his wife's love letters, which "elementary decency" should have prevented him from making public. The court found that the wife on her side unwarrantably attacked her husband by making charges in connection with the disappearance of her jewels and other property, charges which were entirely disproved.

Granted to Both.

The tribunal referred to the notarial court all fixed questions between Mr. and Mrs. McKee. It divided the costs between the plaintiff and the defendant. The formal decision read as follows: "The court grants the divorce at the request and in the interest of both parties."

RICH WOMAN VICTIM OF SWINDLER

Clever Canvasser for Fake Art Work Gels $30,000 From a Well-Known Social Leader in the Big, Windy City.

CHICAGO, May 14.—The Tribune today says: Residents of Evanston today started yesterday when it became known that Mrs. James A. Patton, wife of the grain magnate, and herself a leader in club and society life, in the suburb, had been swindled out of $30,000 by a canvasser.

Mr. and Mrs. Patton refused last night to discuss the matter, and Mayor Joseph E. Padon of Evanston, who is Mr. Patton's attorney, was equally reticent. Chief of Police Shaffer of Evanston has a warrant for the arrest of the swindler, but he, too, declined to talk of the case.

Used an Auto.

A few weeks ago there appeared in Evanston a middle aged man of distinguished appearance who said he represented an Eastern art publishing concern. He went to Evanston in an automobile, and the machine was seen to stop in front of the Patton mansion. The man is said to have been armed with a letter of introduction to Mrs. Patton, and he found little difficulty in securing an interview.

When he left, he took with him it is said, an order for $3000 worth of books or art works.

Returned for More.

A short time later he returned, it is said, and Mrs. Patton was induced to make another investment amounting to nearly $22,000. According to the story told in Evanston yesterday, Mrs. Patton signed twenty or more $1000 notes, which were discounted by the agent and are now being held for the amount. Some of the notes, it is said, were taken up by Mrs. Patton before her husband started an investigation, which revealed that she had been swindled.

Yesterday a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the man, whose name Mayor Padon and the others interested refuse to disclose.

ENTIRE CARLOAD GOES IN A SINGLE DAY

Bankers and Merchants Express Surprise at What Is Not at All Remarkable When Once Understood.

More instruments are being sold these days by Ellers Music Co. than ever before in the history of the State. Yesterday a solid carload of the old time-tried Decker pianos was received. Before evening nearly all of them had been sold. Numerous choice Leaters and magnificent Kimball's, and the now famous Hobart M. Cables and other instruments were also taken.

Business men and bankers passing our establishment have called this a phenomenal business. There is nothing phenomenal about it, for when we are selling brand new, warranted, highest class pianos for $115, $155, yes, even $180 each, less than the same instruments were regularly sold in the past by other dealers, who up to recently held the agency for these goods, the only wonder is that we are not selling every single piano being bought in California.

We offer today the Old Time Houses very highest class. Charged $400.—upright pianos, brand new, for which we will sell, well-known, old-time method house formerly asked $450 and $500 each; we are going to sell these self-same instruments now for $255, and piano styles for $275. Payments? Yes; say, $8 a month, or even $7, if you like. Another house formerly sold a splendid, highly recommended piano for $375 and $400.

Tomorrow is Tribune Day in Idora Park. The rain will have exhausted itself and the day will be bright and fresh and invigorating—just the day for from 25,000 to 30,000 people to enjoy themselves as they never have before. Fully that many will pass through the gates of the great pleasure resort if those who have secured THE TRIBUNE tickets mean to go, and surely they would not have taken the trouble to get the passes if they did not intend making use of them. All afternoon and evening the band will play under the great willows. In the afternoon Professor Frank Hamilton, the famous acrobat, will make his sensational ascension, and during his flight into the clouds let loose the three small parachutes, to which will be attached THE TRIBUNE's special prizes for the day, aggregating a hundred dollars in value. Watch for these miniature parachutes—one will be red, a second white and a third blue.

There will be no trouble or delay experienced in reaching the big pleasure ground, and once you have arrived there, you can enjoy yourself if you are in the mood. POLICE SEARCHING FOR INCENDIARY OF SCHOOLHOUSE

Nearly 1600 Children Were in Danger

CHICAGO, May 14.—Detectives in the employ of the Chicago Board of Education are searching for an incendiary who attempted to burn the Clarke public school, containing 1600 children, at Ashland avenue and West Thirteenth street.

The fire, which started at the foot of one of the stairways on Monday, was discovered in time to prevent spread of the flames. The lower steps of the stairway had been saturated with kerosene and a basket of shavings and paper set afire. The flames had not yet caught the oil-soaked wood when the alarm was given.

In the building there are thirty school rooms. These rooms are filled with deaf and dumb pupils and two score blind students are scattered through the various grades.

WELL KNOWN PRESBYTERIAN FINALLY GETS A BIG FORTUNE

NEW YORK, May 14.—Although cut off by his father, a millionaire, because he changed his religious faith years ago, Rev. Dr. David Gregg, who for thirteen years was pastor of the LaFayette Presbyterian church, Brooklyn, has just inherited $350,000, or about half of his father's estate, under the will of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Gregg of Pittsburgh, recently deceased.

Dr. Gregg, it is stated, incurred his father's displeasure because he left the church of the Covenanters and connected himself with the Presbyterian denomination. The property which Dr. Gregg inherits under his mother's will is chiefly located in Pittsburgh and Allegheny. Dr. Gregg, who is president emeritus of Western Theological Seminary, is visiting at present with his daughter in Brooklyn.

ANTI-GAMBLING ELEMENT GAIN ANOTHER SENATOR IN NEW YORK

ALBANY, N. Y., May 14.—At no stage of the game have the race track element been so demoralized as they were yesterday when Wallace was elected. He was elected on the anti-gambling issue. The race track element were so confident of winning that they were betting three to one on their candidate, Henry A. McMahon.

So uncertain were keen political men that they would not even take this bet, thinking that McMahon was a sure winner. "The election of Wallace in the Niagara-Ontario district makes it appear that the anti-racetrack gambling bills will pass," said Senator John Raines. "I assume that the bills now have the necessary twenty-six votes. It is hoped will recover from his illness in time to return to the senate and vote."

Senator Grady, minority leader, was desperate today. He declared that the right of Wallace to his seat in the senate will be contested in the courts.

MRS. MARTIN HELD FOR TRIAL

Judge Smith Holds Her in $50,000 for an Appearance Before Superior Court—It Did Not Surprise the Prisoner.

Police Judge Smith held yesterday afternoon his Mrs. Isabella Martin for trial in the Superior Court on a charge of dynamiting the home of Superior Judge Ogden, her bail remaining fixed at $50,000. This action was taken after a preliminary examination lasting thirteen days, one of the longest in the history of local police court proceedings.

Judge Frick, attorney for the defense, finished his examination of "Baby John," the last witness called, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Frick then asked the jury to return a verdict for the prosecution. Without delay Judge Smith then announced that sufficient evidence was at hand to warrant the case being taken to the high court for trial, and the notorious woman prisoner was ordered into the custody of the sheriff pending the action of the Superior Court.

Remarkable Case.
For many reasons the Martin case has proved to be one of the most remarkable ever brought to the attention of the local authorities. Ever since "Baby John's" sensational confession in Westerville which resulted in his putative mother being taken into custody, there have been developments of startling nature. One of the most remarkable incidents in connection with the whole affair has been the conduct of himself on the stand. He has been cool and collected throughout, and all attempts on the part of Judge Frick to entrap him proved unavailing.

Not Surprised.
Mrs. Martin showed no unusual emotion when she was held for trial in the higher court, she having expressed the opinion that this action would necessarily be taken. Judge Frick has succeeded in getting a mass of testimony in the record which will be reviewed in the higher court. Mrs. Martin has exhibited a peevish and combative frame of mind most of the time and has been at cross purposes with her attorney. On more than one occasion during her preliminary examination she disturbed the proceedings by insisting on being allowed to cross-examine "Baby John" and has at many times been pointedly told to shut up by her attorney.

Baby John Leaves.
"Baby John" has insisted from the beginning that his dread of Mrs. Martin was the reason for his having obeyed her instructions to commit crimes and that his testimony against her was voluntary. He denied absolutely that anyone connected with the prosecution had ever made an attempt to influence him to testify, his determination to rid himself of the influence of the woman having led him to make the confession and later the testimony which places the woman he has known as mother the greater part of his eventful young life in the shadows of a penal institution.

"Baby John" Martin returned to Westerville this afternoon and will not return to Oakland until Mrs. Martin's case has been set for hearing in the Superior Court.

SAILORS TEACH AN AUDIENCE SOMETHING ABOUT THEIR REVERENCE FOR THE FLAG

Standing alone and at attention, two sailors from one of the warships lying in the bay last night gave to a well filled house at one of the local theaters a striking example of the American bluejackets' respect for the flag.

The orchestra was playing the opening march and immediately upon its conclusion struck up the "Star Spangled Banner." Not a soul moved until suddenly from seats near the orchestra these two young men arose.

For fully two minutes they were the sole ones to honor the flag.

It was not until the last note had been played that they again resumed their seats. The boys were heartily applauded.

DAUGHTER WILL GO ON THE STUMP FOR BRYAN

In Case That He Gets the Nomination

CHICAGO, May 14.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Omaha says: In case William J. Bryan receives the Democratic nomination, his daughter, Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt, will take the stump in Colorado, Wyoming and several other Western states, and will campaign in her father's interests. This information was given out in Omaha yesterday by Mayor Dahlman, who has just returned from Denver, where he has been with other Democratic national campaign committee members making arrangements for the convention.

Mrs. Leavitt will confine her efforts to woman and will only stump those states which have woman suffrage laws. She is a forceful and fluent speaker.

QUARREL AND SEEK OPPONENT'S ARREST

Charles Roth and Wharfinger Griev Appeal to Police, but Neither Is Jailed.

There were two lively quarrels at the City Wharf yesterday, but no arrests. Both charging disturbances of the peace, Charles Roth, a former Supervisor, and City Wharfinger J. B. Greer, each asked for the arrest of the other at the Broadway wharf yesterday, following a quarrel over the fee charged by the several boats carrying the school children to the battleships.

Raised Rate.
Roth was angry at what he claimed was extortion practiced by the owners of the boats, complaining they had advertised a 25-cent rate for the round trip, and had raised the price to 50 cents. He went to Greer's office to make his objection and did it so noisily at the same time charging Greer with neglect of duty in not collecting toll, that Greer ordered him out of the office.

Loud words on both sides followed and Policeman Gardner was summoned. A call was sent in for the patrol wagon, but Captain Lynch got the belligerents on the phone and peace was patched up and no arrests made.

Passenger Limit.
A little later a revenue inspector interfered with one of the Boole boats, claiming it was being overloaded. Boole asserted that he had been building boats a great many years and knew how many people they would carry in safety, but the inspector was obdurate and compelled a limit to be set beyond which he would not permit the ship to put out into the bay.

The altercation in this instance did not reach the stage of police interference.

CURTIN GUILTY OF MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

Jury, After Brief Consideration, Recommends Punishment for Life.

Robert E. Curtin, son of C. Curtin, one of San Francisco's most prominent pleasure motorists, was convicted by a jury last night in Superior Judge John Ellisworth's court, of a charge of murder in the first degree, with the recommendation that he be imprisoned in the State penitentiary for life. Curtin was calm when the verdict was read. His sister, Miss Mary Curtin, who has been in constant attendance upon the trial, was not in court when the jury returned its verdict, nor was his aged father, who has also been present in court nearly every day.

Curtin was charged with murdering John A. Titus, whom he shot to death. The trial was a bitter one from beginning to end, the defense setting up the plea that Curtin was insane at the time that he killed Titus.

Similar to Thaw Case.

The case, in many respects, was similar to that of the Harry Thaw-Stanford White tragedy in New York. Curtin claimed that his wife, Mrs. Minetta Curtin, had made a confession to him that she had gone to San Francisco with Titus, his own automobile with him, had indulged in intoxicating liquors with him and had then remained all night with him in a lodging house on McAllister street.

This confession, the defense claimed, led to Curtin's insanity, and that while he was thus afflicted he killed Titus. The defense put on witnesses to show Curtin was eccentric during his whole life, and it was claimed that Mrs. Curtin's confession of shame was the climax which unhinged his mind, making him a victim of "dementia americana."

No Warning Given.

After his wife's confession Curtin purchased a revolver and for three days sought for Titus. Finally, on October 9 of last year he located Titus in the latter's home. Curtin shot Titus without a moment's warning.

The case went to the jury at 4:25 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the verdict was returned at 7:30 o'clock.

Curtin will be sentenced by Judge Ellisworth next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

FALLING OFF IS SHOWN IN CENSUS

According to the school census which has just been completed in this city, there is a falling off of 590 in the number of children of school age compared with the corresponding time last year. The census this year gives the total number as 25,628, while the figures last year showed that there were 26,218 school children in the city.

This is due to the fact that a number of San Francisco families who moved here after their homes were burned have returned to the San Francisco.

SIMPLE WASH CURES ECZEMA.

Itching, Burning Skin Disease Routted Without Use of Injurious Drugs.

Great inventors often have been praised and persecuted for the same thing. Practically the same thing happened in the medical world in the case of Dr. D. D. Prescription. Dr. Dennis, in his own office practice, discovered that pure vegetable oil of wintergreen, properly mixed with other simple remedies, was practically a sure cure for Eczema, psoriasis, barber's itch, salt rheum and other itching skin diseases. But the oil of wintergreen alone was found ineffective. It required other mild ingredients, such as glycerin and thymol compounded with the wintergreen to produce the real eczema cure. This compounded D. D. Prescription positively takes away the itch at once. The instant it is applied to the skin, the itching liquid does away with all irritating causes, and the patient is free from the disease. If you want to know more about the merits of D. D. Prescription, call at our store. We vouch for this remedy. Owl Drug Company.

TEACHER KNEW MISSING GIRL

Says That She Received Death Message, but Did Not Believe It.

"I have known Dolores and her mother for eight years. I also know her brothers, Howard, Doell and Theodore. I do not care to say whether Dolores was a student here."

The above statement was made by Mrs. M. Ault, a teacher in the convent of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart yesterday regarding Dolores Hildebrand, whose mysterious disappearance has caused much comment throughout the city.

Mrs. Ault also stated that she knew of Dolores' parents' objection to the girl's marriage to Clarence Reed, to whom she was at one time engaged. "I don't know for a certainty that the girl is dead. All I know is that on the night she is said to have died a man called me by telephone and said, 'Dolores is dead.' 'No, she isn't,' I exclaimed, 'that can't be possible.' 'The man said that it was true and hung up.'"

The parents of the young people are in the dark as to where or when the marriage was performed. The bridegroom's parents had no objection to the marriage, except on the ground of youthfulness, their son being scarcely of age.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Oakland Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains come from sick kidneys. "Would save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Oakland people endorse this. Mrs. H. M. Daggett, living at 1409 East Eleventh street, East Oakland, Cal., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills gave me the greatest relief and I am glad to give them my recommendation. At the time I began their use I was much run down and seemed to have no energy or ambition. My kidneys were also much disordered and bothered me a great deal. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills gave me much benefit, and from that time on I steadily improved. I am now better in every way and greatly endorse the remedy that has proven of such great value to me." For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. JOE GANS EXPECTS HIS SKILL TO WIN GREAT BATTLE FIGHT AFRICAN WILL UNHOLZ

BOER UNHOLZ TO ATTEMPT TO WREST HONORS FROM JOE

South African Bruiser Has Big Contract on His Hands But He Is Confident of Outcome.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

TONIGHT in San Francisco Boer Unholz will tackle a job that has been a hard one for the lightweight fighters of the world for many years, and in doing so he is entering the ring as an outsider of the worst type. Many times fighters have entered into contests in San Francisco and other places with the people feeling that they had no chance to win who have been able to cause a reversal of form and come in under the wire number one. The fact that sometimes the so-called wise ones of the boxing game bet three to one or four to one is not absolute proof of anything, for time and again it has been proven that the better are as foolish over playing favorites as a young woman is over spring millinery. They made Jim Corbett a one to four short-end when he met John L. Sullivan, and that poor old has-been at that time was so fat that he could not lace his shoes, let alone fight. The betting on the contest of tonight is about the same as that with Sullivan and Corbett, but the favorite in this contest is not fat or the signs of his increasing age have not as yet put in an appearance.

He is growing old, to be sure, and the years of his success in the ring must be drawing to a close, but unless all the rules of studying the physical condition fall, Gans is today pretty much of a live one. The one chance that Rudolph Unholz has to win will be the effect of the increasing age. In case Gans has gone back a good bit then Unholz will startle and surprise the world by being declared the winner of the world's championship, but if the dusky wonder is anything like he should be Mr. Unholz and his awkward strength will be found wriggling on the canvas covering of the ring long before the limit.

The two with his awkward combat methods in the ring has been able to get a decision over George Marnie, awarded by the entire press representatives at the ringside, and with Nelson he was able to split at least even in the matter of picking a winner in a ten round contest with Battling Nelson. In that contest it would appear that Unholz really did have a little the better of the going, but his record that dates back previous to these two last contests is one that would not bear the scrutiny of a very strong searchlight. Unholz, to be fair with him, seems to be confident that he will be able to make a good showing with Gans and also that he will at least stick the limit. Gans, on the other hand, is just as confident that he will be able to win in nice style as he was that he would beat Jimmy Britt, and unless his hitting power has gone back on him the job appears to be an easy one.

Unholz has been using his showings with Marnie and Nelson as a proof of the fact that he will be able to cope with Gans, but Unholz has never fought any one like Gans, for there are no more at home like him, so until tonight's battle is settled we will have to consider Mr. Rudolph Unholz a rank outsider even in the face of his apparent confidence.

JOE GANS, CHAMPION LIGHTWEIGHT OF THE WORLD, WHO WILL DEFEND HIS TITLE AGAINST BOER UNHOLZ IN SAN FRANCISCO TONIGHT.

SLATTERY'S DRIVE TO THE OUTFIELD WINS CLOSE GAME

Dollar and Willis Engage in the Prettiest Pitching Duel of the Year at Recreation Park.

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

Pitcher Dollar, Oakland's new find, pitched such a game of ball in San Francisco yesterday that a duplicate of that not a runner scored in the field. Let it be said for Willis also that he pitched a sterling game that should win nine times out of ten. Oakland played faultless baseball the entire game. Not a single error was charged up to the Commuters. They played with snap and nerve and ginger, and their brilliant work in the tight pinches won the game for them.

Willis showed form of an unusual high order. He did not walk anyone until the eleventh inning. The only faux pas of the game was made by McCardle. For the first six innings Dollar was in such rare form that he only allowed eighteen batters to face him.

The game was fast and snappy throughout, and the entire twelve innings consumed only one hour and forty-five minutes, the regular time for a nine-inning contest.

Jack Slattery was again the hero of the game. His slashing hit to right field in the twelfth inning scored Unholz with the one only, and winning run of the game. Score: OAKLAND, AB. R. BH. SB. PO. A. Season Opens at Grass Valley Chase Lowers World's Record

GRASS VALLEY, May 14.—The fast Calkins baseball team of San Francisco, opened the season here Sunday with the home team. The weather was ideal for baseball and when Mayor Haas threw the first ball over the plate the grand stand and bleachers were packed. In a fast and snappy game the visitors defeated the home team by a score of 5 to 2. The batting and pitching of Conroy of the Calkins' team and the fielding of Beradori for the home team were the features in a game replete with fast and clever plays.

The Calkins' baseball club has an open date May 17 and would like to hear from some fast country team at San Francisco. Write to L. Schwartz, 1403 Chestnut street, Oakland.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14.—Captain E. R. Mercer of the George School in competition here yesterday, set a new world's record for a half-mile course here yesterday. The first heat was trotted in one minute flat, lowering the previous record held by Mack Mack of 1:02 1/2.

Beavers Shut Out Dillon's Champs

PORTLAND, May 14.—Pernell, the big left hander of McCredie's forces shut out the Los Angeles team here yesterday by a score of 3 to 0. The Grant's Pass boy was in great form and had the Angels completely baffled.

Like yesterday, the home team got off in front, scoring two in the first. Casey struck out, but Ryan sent one into safe territory at center, and McCredie followed with a drive to left, both runners advanced on the play. Danzig went out, third to first, and Bassey singled to left, scoring both Ryan and McCredie. Johnson went out on a fly.

After that there was nothing doing until the fifth when Case drove the ball to the fence for two bases, and Ryan beat out a bunt. McCredie's single to left scored Casey. Danzig went out on a foul fly, and Bassey struck out. Johnson walked, filling the bases, and it began to look like some more runs when Madden fouled out. The game was quick and snappy, but devoid of feinting features. Attendance was small. Score: LOS ANGELES. Smithson Makes World's Record

During the progress of the San Francisco Athletic League's field day at the stadium yesterday, Forrest Smithson, the champion amateur hurdler of the United States, made a successful attack on the record for the 100-yard over eight low hurdles held by A. C. Kranzlein at 12 1/2 seconds. The hurdles were set up on the bicycle track which was in good condition, and the speedy Portland runner made the trip in 12 seconds flat. Smithson won the admiration of the spectators by his tremendous speed and clever hurdling, but it is not likely that the record will be allowed, as the wind at his back helped him somewhat.

averts that her husband choked her while he was racing his horses at Arcadia, near Los Angeles, and that in consequence she was under the care of a physician for three weeks. The complaint further declares that at Los Angeles Dunn grew so abusive that his wife was obliged to leave him to save herself from injury. She claims that he made threats against her and struck her many times.

When he arrived in Oakland for the purpose of placing his horses in the Emeryville race track Mrs. Dunn asserts that her husband made the acquaintance of a number of women for whom he bought dinners and paid attention to the exclusion of herself. Mrs.
Dunn explains in the complaint that she has been unable to obtain the full names of these women, but cites a number of instances in which her husband was seen in their company.

On May 8th it is alleged that Dunn expelled his wife from his residence and refused to allow her to return. Mrs.
Dunn secured an order restrain-ing her husband from disposing of twelve race horses, which she appraised at $25,000. A similar order was also placed against a deposit of $4,000 which he has with the California Jockey Club.

IMPROMPTU WALTZ GIVES LIFE TO SAILORS' RECEPTION

Program Arranged by Ministers Slightly Changed by Music of Band.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—There was an impromptu waltz interpolated in the program of the reception to the colored enlisted men of the fleet in San Francisco last night. The reception at the Auditorium was arranged by the Rev. A. A. Bureleigh and the Rev. J. H.
Kelly, and though there were many pleasing features no provision had been made for dancing. All went according to the plan until within a few numbers of the end of a fine program, when the band struck up a lively two step. In a twinkling a big sailor took the hand of the girl nearest him and they whirled away across the open space of the hall to be followed almost instantly by enough couples to fill the floor.

More than 800 negro bluejackets were entertained and 2000 people listened to the program. It was the most brilliant public affair ever given by their race in San Francisco.

It will soon be necessary to classify the records being made over the San Francisco-Los Angeles route, as the two-cylinder cars are going after a showing, along with the higher power cars of gas and steam. The Auburn two-cylinder touring cars record of twenty hours can be bettered with lack of the troubles, which they were so badly handicapped with, and then the other cars of like horse power, will have chance at a record worth sustaining. The next high powered car to compete, is the sixty horse power
Stearns Roadster, owned by Leigh Cords, who will first familiarize himself with the route and then turn the big car loose. The two-cylinder Tourist is next on the program.

The Dealers' Association of San Francisco, has selected its course for its scheduled 'twenty-four hour endurance run, Decoration Day. It begins at San Leandro, to Alvarado, Centerville, Irvington, turning at Warm Springs to Mission San Jose, Niles,
Hayward and back to San Leandro.
The course measures forty-seven and one-half miles and must be covered twelve times during the twenty-four hours. Only regular stock cars can be entered. All adjustments will be permitted, with the exception of tire trouble, but with no time allowance.

Sidney Phillips of the Phillips Drayage and Warehouse Co., of Sacramento has just purchased a model "M" Oldsmobile. Although Mr. Phillips has a party of friends with him he expects to make the homeward run in less than eight hours, by way of Stockton.

William V. Dinmore, cashier of the Bank of San Jose, was in Oakland yesterday, with a party of friends in his Thomas forty. Mr. Dinmore's young son Welby has driven this car over five thousand miles, without accident or adjustment.

BLACKMAIL SCHEME MILLIONAIRE EXCLAIMS

S. H. Fullerton to Help Son Fight Charges; Detectives Hasten to Return Prisoner East.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—Every effort is being made by the detectives who are here from New York for the purpose of taking back Robert J. Fullerton, to quietly slip their man out of the State before he can take advantage of the technicalities of the law. With that end in view, Detective Lieutenant Norman J. Fitzsimmons of New York appeared before Judge Shortall bright and early this morning before more than a handful of people were to be seen around the corridors of the Hall of Justice, and obtained a fugitive warrant for the arrest of the young man, based on the New York indictment against him.

Abduction Is Charged.

He is accused of abduction, the offense being alleged to have taken place on September 29, 1907. The indictment, however, was not found until April 22, and it was on that day that Judge T. C. Crane issued the warrant.
Since the detectives arrived in this city with their prisoner, Fullerton has obtained his release on habeas corpus in the Superior Court, and it is intended that he is desired to re-arrest him and rush him to the East as quick as the habeas corpus matter is settled.

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—F. H. Fullerton, the father of Robert W. Fullerton, who is held in San Francisco on charges preferred against him by Miss Gladys Hobart of New York, stated last night that if his son is not released on the writ of habeas corpus he will probably go to San Francisco and accompany his son to New York to meet the charge. Mr. Fullerton insists that his son is not guilty of wrongdoing, but is the victim of a blackmailing scheme.

Extortion Plot.

"It is palpable to me that my son is a victim of a scheme to extort money from me and from him," said Fullerton. "I will spend my fortune, if necessary, and fight this thing through every court in the United States but I will never have the matter squelched by paying any extortion. I never heard of any promise of marrying, but I have heard of requests for money. If necessary I will go to New York and show just what engineering this scheme. I advised my son to pay no money but to fight the matter to a standstill. He took my advice."
